ADVANCE NOTICE - SOMETHING DIFFERENT SUNDAY NOVEMBER 2ND

Reflections on Peace An invitation to share service.

The end of October and early November encompass a season of remembrance, including All Soul's Day and All Saint's Day, Remembrance Day and Remembrance Sunday. November 2nd at St Alban's is a Something Different Service, led by Rev John Kime, where we are inviting members of the congregation to share a reading, hymn, poem, personal experience, witness, piece of artwork on the theme of Peace. Invitation to Share services can be nerve wracking for the preacher and the worship team as the Sunday draws ever closer with only one or two volunteers to share. So we are giving you advance notice to have a think about something you could share and then when we ask you in a couple of weeks to volunteer, we will, hopefully, be inundated. Thank you.

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX APPEAL 2025 – HOLY TRINITY

We are again supporting the Teams4U Christmas Shoebox Appeal. Leaflets outlining the kind of items, which can be included in the Shoebox, are on the table at the back of church. There are some Shoeboxes available, already covered.

Otherwise, an empty, medium sized Shoebox covered with Christmas or gift wrapping paper can be used.

Filled Shoeboxes should be brought to church by Sunday November 2nd at the latest.

Shoeboxes will be distributed to children and families in deprived circumstances across Eastern Europe in Ukraine, Romania, Moldova, Belarus, Georgia and Bosnia.

If there are any queries please contact Jenny Carter on Stroud 763436 or mob. 07957617627.

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX APPEAL 2025 – ST ALBANS

We will also have leaflets and empty shoeboxes available at St Albans really soon; in the meantime why start your shopping in preparation? There is a lot of information on the T4U website with many ideas of what to put in your shoeboxes. We will collect our boxes at St Albans and deliver them to Jenny all together. Any questions speak to Janet Townsend.

STROUD DISTRICT FOODBANK IS RECRUITING NEW TRUSTEES, INCLUDING A NEW CHAIR OF TRUSTEES

These are voluntary roles, involving around six main meetings each year, with additional opportunities to support the Foodbank's work in between. We'd particularly welcome applications from people with experience in HR, PR/Communications, risk management, or personal experience of poverty.

We're seeking individuals who are committed to supporting our community and helping Stroud District Foodbank make a real difference, guided by our values of compassion, dignity, and service.

For an application pack or any questions please contact:- admin@strouddistrictfoodbank.org.uk

From Punk to Pulpit

Our Guest Speaker – Mike Juggins

> Born in the late sixties, growing up with a violent and temperamental father, moving school at 7 subjected to a beast of a headteacher with a penchant for bullying children who were different.

> A choirboy who didn't worship God. Abused at 13 leading to a life of alcohol, drugs and sex.

> Mental illness in the form of depression, suicide attempts, arrests and mental hospital.

> Then BAM!! Jesus steps in.

> The tale of a man's journey from depravity to redemption.

THERE WILL BE PRAYER MINISTRY.
